Ad Astra Dance Initiates Festivities; Details Of Annual Final Ball Revealed

Initiating the 1958 final social activities at A.M.A. was an informal dance sponsored last night in the lower social hall of Memorial Gymnasium by the Ad Astra Per Aspera Honor Society, the highest honorary organization at Augusta.

The dance lasted from 9:30 until 12:00, with music taped by

Cadet Duke Fancher with electronics by Cadet Bob Ramsey. Decorations were in blue and gold. Dates for the dance were arranged through Cadet Elliott Ridge.

Ball To Feature Patriotic Theme

The Final Ball, highlight of the A.M.A. social year, will be held Monday night from 9:30 until 12:00 in Memorial Gymnasium. Supper will be served at 12:00 in the Junior playroom.

Decorations for the dance, plans for which are under the direction of Major C. E. Savedge and the cadet leadership of Battalion Commander Duke Fancher, will follow a patriotic color scheme of red, white and blue. Decorations will include huge replicas of the Great Seal, as well as the seals of the Army, Navy, and Air Force, designed by Cadets Gene Knowlden and Bill McGrath, and executed by Cadets Luke Snyder, assisted by Elliott Ridge. The bandstand decorations and two authentic cannons were designed and built by Cadets Pete Kelbaugh and Chuck Lang. The double ceiling of blue and white was designed by Cadet Bill Burrell, who was assisted by Cadets Herb Hausmann, Dave Holland, Jim Lanks and John Steciw.

Music for the dance will be supplied by Larry Sohn and his orchestra.

Prior to the Final Ball figure will be the presentation of the top twelve officers of the Final Ball Committee. Carrying out the theme of the dance, they will be in costume, representing U. S. military heroes since the Revolution.

Special Commencement Issue

SENTIMENT FOR THE CLASS OF '58 . .

This term's like a shadow
That lingers in the sky,
And longer grows the bow
As each day passes by.
Dearer than pots of gold
Is the reward we'll find
Before the last is o'er
And the school's left behind.
Pleasures so sweet and fair
Riches could never lend
As the joy we'll find
At our bow's glowing end.

Winter at length is gone—
Those days that passed so slow;
The hills are bright with grass,
Where once they gleamed with snow.
Throughout the cold days
We dreamed of far off spring,
Of our last days toge'er
And the sweet joys they bring.
They've been our gleaming goal,
When books cease to offend—
Those days that end at all—
Our rainbow and its end.

"Old Men" long for finals
When all their toils are 'oer;
The "Rats" fondest dream is
To be a rat no more.
The dogs will bark with glee
When the last drum has beat—
They'll have to howl no more

When bugles blow retreat.
"Old Men," "Rats," and dogs have
Dreamings that sweetly blend;
They long for finals' joys—
Our rainbow and its end.

Feelings ineffable
These sweet dreamings bestir.
But they're naught as is felt
When the "last rites" occur.
There'll be plenty o'mirth
When finals roll around,
But, for each happy laugh,
There'll be a tear found,
There'll be those in our midst
When we part—friend with friend—
Who'll leave us fore'er at
Our rainbow's glowing end.

They mean a lot to us,
Those boys who won't return;
We'll try to show them that
Before we all adjourn
It's hard to say good-bye
To those who won't be back,
But, 'till that last sad word,
Nothing for them shall lack.
Before they part from us,
On different trails to wend,
We'll show our love for them
At their last rainbow's End.

Augusta Glee Club Will Sing At Baccalaureate Service Tomorrow

The A.M.A. Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. William Pritchett, will make its final contribution of the year to Life at Augusta tonight and tomorrow morning.

This evening the Glee Club will present two numbers at the final celebration of the Ciceronian Literary Societies in the Big Room of the Academic Hall. They will sing "Over the Rainbow," by Harburg and Arlen, and "Your Land and My Land," by Romberg. The latter will feature trumpet accompaniment by Cadet Bill Hedge-path.

Tomorrow morning the Glee Club will combine with the choir of the Old Stone Church in presenting special music for the Baccalaureate service. They will sing "The Creation," by Richter, and "Build Thee More Stately Mansions," by Andrews.

Also singing tomorrow morning will be the Junior Choir, the male section of which is composed of A.M.A. cadets of the Junior School. The Senior and Junior Choirs will present an antiphonal arrangement of the hymn "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

To be featured at the last meeting of the Y.M.C.A. Sunday evening will be a vocal solo rendered by Mrs. Pritchett. The number she has selected is an original composition for voice and piano entitled "Hast Thou Not Known."

The last special program of music presented by the Glee Club for A.M.A. was on the evening of May 14 in the Big Room. The concert included "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," arranged by Ringwald; "The Phantom Duke," by Cox; "What Shall We Do With a Drunken Sailor?," a traditional sea chantey; "Stouthearted Men," by Romberg; "If I Loved You," "Oklahoma," "You'll Never Walk Alone," all by Rodgers and Hammerstein; and "On the Road to Mandalay," by Speaks-Chaffin. The latter number featured comic solo parts by Cadets Tom Armstrong and Charles Bell. Cadet Pete Kelbaugh presented special music, singing a folk song and leading group singing to the accompaniment of his guitar.

Members of the Glee Club were awarded special recognition last week when they were presented with gold pins by Mrs. Pritchett. Those receiving pins were Cadets Tom Armstrong, Charles Bell, Lloyd Eastlack, Pete Kelbaugh, Chuck Lang, Joe LaRue, Roger Ramos, Bob Ridgeway, Jim Simmons, Larry Spillan, John Steciw, Joe Taylor, Jerry Tolson, Barton Weeks and Billy Yates.

"This Is Our Record" --- '58 Recall Sees Innovations, 45 More Pages

Having as its theme "This is our record," the 1958 Recall, the A.M.A. yearbook due to arrive yesterday, features the stories of the year in double-page monthly spreads.

Division pages carry out the theme by showing the use of hands in making records, while the end pages represent the start and the end of the record. The cover is white with the A.M.A. tower embossed in black, which sets the black and white color scheme of the book.

45 pages have been added to this year's book, twenty-four of which cover academics at A.M.A. The book is modern, in keeping with current trends, and features a completely new design of the "Who's Who" section, as well as completely informal and different military pages. The layout was done by Cadet George Wiese, Editor of the 1958 Recall.

Three hundred copies of the book have been sold, constituting the largest sale in many years.

Besides Cadet Wiese, other members of the 1958 Recall staff are Cadets George Holt and Dave Conrad, Business Managers; Herb Hausmann, Sports Editor; Bill Blakely and Mike Snell, Photographers. The general staff was comprised of Francis Coffman, Elliott Ridge, Bob Smoyer, Jim Towe and Zeke Zehmer. Battalion Commander Duke Fancher was the first Editor Emeritus. Cadet George Snyder did all of the art work in the book. Major C. E. Sav-
